

Maurice Langston

Born and raised in Wakulla County, Undersheriff/Major T.W. Maurice Langston began his public service career in 1973 in Hendry County, Florida, after graduating from the Southwest Florida Police Academy. Maurice returned to work for Wakulla Sheriff David F. Harvey, dedicating 32 years to serving Wakulla's citizens.

During his tenure, Maurice worked as a Road Patrol Deputy Sheriff; he also served as a School Resource Officer, Detective, Jail Administrator, Law Enforcement and Administrative Major, and Undersheriff. He graduated from FDLE's Executive Institute and the FBI National Academy.

Maurice continues to serve as a sworn reserve member of the Wakulla County Sheriff's Office, working on-call as needed. He is a founding member and Chairman of the Florida Council for Safe Communities, which seeks to influence safety-related public policy decisions by mobilizing community leaders across the state.
