

CHRIS EDWARDS

CLASS OF 1994

Chris Edwards serves as the Tallahassee Market President for MidSouth Bank, bringing over two decades of experience in commercial and small business lending. After spending 15 years in the Atlanta banking sector, he returned to his hometown in 2012 to continue his work in community banking as a Commercial Sales Manager and lender. A proud alumnus of Mercer University and Tallahassee State College—where he also played college baseball—Edwards furthered his education at the American Bankers Association Stonier Graduate School of Banking and the Wharton Business School Leadership Program.

Deeply committed to civic engagement, Edwards serves on the boards of several local organizations, including the Tallahassee State College Foundation (where he is Board President), Boys and Girls Clubs of the Big Bend, Challenger Learning Center, Tallahassee Downtown Business Association, and Tallahassee Friends of Our Parks Foundation. He is a graduate of Leadership Tallahassee Class 32 and a former KCCI Community Catalyst. Edwards and his wife, Kim, reside in Tallahassee with their two children, continuing to invest in the community that shaped his personal and professional journey.
