

SKYLAR NOBLES

CLASS OF 2017

A Tallahassee native, Skylar (Sky) Nobles is a dynamic entrepreneur and public relations professional whose career is defined by creativity, community impact, and bold innovation. At just 27, she has launched multiple women-owned ventures—including Fizz & Foam, The Fizzy Cart, Sky Blooms Co., and Sky Pop Balloons—transforming Tallahassee’s event scene with flair and originality. Her academic path began at Tallahassee State College and continued at Florida State University, where she earned dual bachelor’s degrees in editing, writing & media and geography, followed by a master’s in communication and digital studies. Nobles views entrepreneurship as a craft—equal parts passion, risk, and creativity—and she channels that philosophy into mentoring aspiring business owners through her mobile bar education platform.

In addition to her entrepreneurial success, Nobles serves as Public Relations Manager for True Story PR, specializing in tourism and hospitality, with client placements in Forbes, Southern Living, and Travel + Leisure. She’s been recognized in 850 Business Magazine’s 30 Under 30 and featured in Tallahassee Magazine and the Tallahassee Democrat. Her ventures have earned accolades like The Knot Best of Weddings and Best of Zola. Nobles also founded Tallahassee Gals, a networking community for local women, and volunteers with organizations such as the Boys & Girls Club of North Florida and Tree House Tallahassee. Her journey is a testament to betting on yourself early, building vibrant connections, and ensuring every celebration is anything but flat.
