FEBRUARY 8-9, 2027

INSTRUCTOR: Lieutenant Charlie Nahrwold has over 20 years of law enforcement experience and more than 15 years as a supervisor, trainer, and leader. As a lead law enforcement instructor, he specializes in defensive tactics, use of force, de-escalation, patrol operations, and leadership development. His experience in a variety of law enforcement assignments has afforded him a wealth of knowledge in working with diverse personalities to accomplish performance objectives, develop trusting relationships, and build future supervisors and leaders

CHARLIE NAHRWOLD'S LEADERSHIP FOR FRONT-LINE SUPERVISORS COURSE

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This two-day class focuses on how to be the best front-line leader you can be. Leadership is much different than Management. Understand that your Sergeant stripes never make you a leader. Your ability to lead is based on your level of dedication to your team and the relationships you build.

COST: $325 PER STUDENT

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Leadership versus Management.
- Are you born with leadership skills or can they be forged?
- What is a Positional Leader?
- Influence versus Manipulation.
- First your Friends - Now your Subordinates. Leading with Subordinates, Peers, and Bosses.
- Let them win.
- Followership.
- Listen first then decide.
- Why is time on your side?
- Love and Accountability.
- Leadership growth - How is it accomplished?
