NEW BUSINESS

Budget Update

Director Hartman updated the council members on the current budget position and presented the semi-annual FY 24-25 report. Proposed budgets for FY 25-26 were also presented to the council. This was not a voting item and was signed by Chair Hill prior to the meeting. Copies of all budget reports were provided to members.

Commission Updates

Executive Director Hartman presented the updates from the CJSTC commission meeting on February 3-6, 2025.

- Proposed updates to the defensive tactics instructor and vehicle operations courses are in the works. Pick-up trucks will be added to the existing vehicle operations curriculum. The commission is asking agencies for feedback on the proposed changes.

Academy Updates

FPSI

- A fenced area was recently built as a K9 Run to support the Bloodhound Seminar and other K9 Officers who use FPSI as a training site.
- FPSI, in partnership with FHP, is about to break ground on the high-speed track.
- Funds have been approved by the legislature for an aquatic center to be built at FPSI.
- The annual Mine Safety Competition will take place at the end of February.
- The annual instructor conference will take place on May 5-9, 2025.

Course Updates

The council was provided a handout of completed and scheduled courses. At this time, all training funds have been allocated to be spent. Further, a survey for FY 25-26 courses was sent to all voting members, and the results were provided to the council. Courses will begin to be scheduled for next fiscal year.
