OLD BUSINESS:

Members were allowed to review the minutes from the February 2026 meeting.

Motion: Capt. Boyland moved to accept the minutes, which were seconded by Director Lane. The minutes of the February 2026 meetings were approved.

NEW BUSINESS

Budget Update

Mike Fraser updated the council members on the current budget position.

- The FY25-26 budget has been fully expended.

Commission Updates

Director Hartman presented the updates from the CJSTC Commission meeting held on October 27-30, 2025.

- FDLE is aware of the schedule change of marijuana at the federal level. FDLE is monitoring, and if any further updates are needed, they will reach out to agencies.
- Mandatory autism training must be done by July 1, 2029. The new curriculum will be online in about a year.
- Patrol Rifle Instructor course is still under rewrite and accepting recommendations from SMEs.
- A new BRC Vehicle Ops curriculum is being field tested.
- A committee was set up and is in talks to edit the advanced FTO course to remove the “form-heavy” curriculum and replace it with general guidelines, such as how to evaluate, correct, and train instructors.

Academy Updates

- FPSI is looking at purchasing American Range Walls to be used as a short-term solution to a requested shoot house.
- A concrete pad was poured that will be home to a new Rogue Fitness station of pull-up bars, heavy bags, and climbing ropes courtesy of FWC.

Course Updates

- Courses for FY 26-27 are being posted. Please send any course needs to FPSI Staff, and we will work to address them.
