

Sheri Thomas

LIBRARY SERVICES SPECIALIST

Sheri earned her B.S. degree in Office Administration from Florida A&M University (FAMU). She joined the Library Services team at TSC in 2005. Prior to her role at TSC, she worked in several key roles across FAMU Libraries, including the Science & Research Center, Journalism Library, Architecture Library, and Coleman Library. Sheri's experience also extends to FAMU's African American Special Collections, reflecting her passion for preserving cultural heritage and supporting academic research. Outside of her professional life, she enjoys spending quality time with her family and exploring new destinations through her love of travel.